My big decision

by Amy

I always get the bus to school, but one day last week I missed it, so I walked to school instead. On the way I found a wallet with credit cards, debit cards and €150 in it. At first, I wasn't sure what to do, but I decided to stop at the police station and hand it in before I got to school. I arrived at school very late and my tutor gave me a detention after school that day ☹. After the detention, I had to go and see the head teacher. He gave me an envelope. Inside there was a note and €25 ☺. It was from the owner of the wallet.
