The Best Trip Around Europe

By Michael Aldridge

I travelled around Europe in nine different ways last summer and visited seven different countries! I only took a backpack with a few basic possessions. I think backpacking is the best way to travel. I started my journey in London and went by plane to Venice in Italy. From there, I went by bus along the coastline to the port. Then I got on a ferry and travelled across the sea to Croatia. In Croatia, I rented a car and drove to Serbia, then into Hungary and finally through Slovakia. The roads were long, but I went through forests and valleys and drove on narrow roads between huge mountain ranges. While I was in Slovakia, I rode a horse in the national park. It was fantastic! After that, I got on a train to Austria. Trains were the best way to travel in Slovakia. They were less expensive than other types of transport, and they were the safest. Next, I floated over the largest lake in Austria in a hot-air balloon. And from Austria, I went by coach to Germany. On my last day, I phoned for a taxi to take me to the airport. And finally, I went back home to the UK.

- a. horse ___
- b. bus ___
- c. car ___
- d. coach ___
- e. ship ___
- f. plane 0
- g. ferry ___
- h. hot-air balloon ___
- i. tram ___
